

THE JACOB AND HILDA BLAUSTEIN FUND FOR THE ENRICHMENT OF JEWISH EDUCATION

The Jacob & Hilda Blaustein Fund for the Enrichment of Jewish Education 2024 – 2025 Grantees

Baltimore Hebrew Congregation

To develop an arts studio dedicated to Jewish learning, art making and community building at Baltimore Hebrew Congregation.

Baltimore Hillels

To build innovative educational programming that will address the rise of antisemitism through strategic campus partnerships.

Beth El Congregation

To offer a weekly Torah study program for millennials.

Bolton Street Synagogue

To bring together diverse pillar institutions and synagogues from across Baltimore City to create a vibrant young adult Jewish community.

Elijah Cummings Youth Program in Israel

To offer Jewish and African-American students the opportunity to explore civil rights history together, culminating with a trip to the South.

imadi

To provide a leadership program for high school volunteers who help children and families navigating pediatric health diagnoses.

Jewish Community Center of Greater Baltimore

To create new grandparent-grandchild camps, both day and overnight, building on partnerships with the JCC and Pearlstone.

Jewish Federation of Howard County

To offer classroom-based programs that will bring Jewish and non-Jewish high school students together to learn about Judaism through personal storytelling.

Jewish Library of Baltimore

To create multi-generational book clubs that help foster relationships between younger and older generations guided by Jewish values.

Maryland Hillel

To bring together students of different backgrounds to share their experiences on campus and unpack acts of antisemitism, racism, islamophobia and other acts of discrimination.

Temple Isaiah

To provide Temple Isaiah students from grades 8-12 with a leadership program where participants will learn directly from Jewish leaders in the field, who will guide them in translating Torah and texts into tangible leadership tactics.

The Associated

To offer a six-part series for young adults to build community while delving beneath surface assumptions to explore the rich nuances of Israeli history, enhance personal connections to Israel and each other and build skills to navigate difficult conversations about Israel.