

THE JACOB AND HILDA BLAUSTEIN FUND FOR THE ENRICHMENT OF JEWISH EDUCATION

The Jacob & Hilda Blaustein Fund for the Enrichment of Jewish Education 2025 – 2026 Grantees

Atlantic Seaboard NCSY

To create a new position that will provide opportunities for Jewish teens to volunteer in the community.

Baltimore Hebrew Congregation

To continue the arts studio dedicated to Jewish learning, art making and community building.

Baltimore Hillels

To teach college students how to be Jewish adults.

Bolton Street Synagogue

To bring together young adults for learning opportunities. This is a collaborative project of Beth Am, B’Nai Israel and Bolton Street Synagogue.

Elijah Cummings Youth Program in Israel

To offer Jewish and African-American students the opportunity to explore civil rights history together, culminating with a trip to the South.

Jewish Incarcerated Family Services

To provide Jewish educational opportunities for incarcerated individuals and their families.

Macks Jewish Connection Network

To develop a pre-b’mitzvah service and learning program for families.

Maryland Hillel

To offer a year-long program designated to empower Jewish women students through mentorship, professional development and personal growth.

The Alvin & Louis Lapidus Center

To offer weekly Torah study sessions for Millennials.

The Associated

To bring together leaders from the Black, Jewish and Black Jewish Community to build bridges and connections.